Disciplinary proceedings under Rule 14 of CCS (CCA) Rules, 1965

8268. SHRI RAGHAVJI: Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether a disciplinary proceeding initiated under Rule 14 of CCS (CCA) Rules, 1965 can be concluded without affording the accused any opportunity to lead his witnesses and evidence whatsoever; and

(b) if so, details of the relevant provisions and if not, what are the corrective measures available to the awardee of a penalty and what is the methodology thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRIMATI MARGARET ALVA): (a) No, Sir.

(b) Where a penalty has been imposed without giving adequate opportunity to the delinquent Government servant to present evidence through his own witnesses he may prefer an appeal or revision/review petition to the prescribed authority.

Separate lists for substantive appointments and temporary vacancies

8269. SHRI H. HANUMAN THAPPA:

SHRI SURESH PACHOURI:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased to state:

(a) whether the Central Administrative Tribunal in a recent judgement has held that Central Secretariat Service Rules contemplate preparation of two separate select lists, one for the purpose of making substantive appointments to Section Officers Grade and the other for the purposes of filling temporary vacancies in this grade and that the manner of preparation of both these lists is to be laid down in the Fourth Schedule to these Rules;

(b) whether the Schedule requires fixation of a centralised zone for the purposes of making such select lists;

(c) whether substantive appointments in the past have been made without any such centralised zone having been fixed and it has resulted in the inter-cadre anomalies in the substantive appointments of the select list officers; and

(d) whether Government propose to fix centralised zones for the purposes of making substantive appointments of select list officers with a view to remove these anomalies?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRIMATI MARGARET ALVA): (a) Sub rule (1) of rule 13 of CSS rules, 1962 deals with appointments against substantive vacancies; and sub rule (2) of the same deals with appointments against temporary vacancies. Sub rule (5) of the same rule provides that "for the purpose of sub-rule (1) and (2), a Select List for Section Officers Grade shall be prepared and may be revised from time to time.' Thus, one Select List is prepared for this purpose. The incumbents of the Select List get appointed substantively on availability of substantive vacancies. From 1989, however, all appointments including appointments in the Select List, are made against regular vacancies. The Central Administrative Tribunal has not changed the above position in its recent judgement in OA Nos. 996/1993, 157/1994, 492/1994 and 629/1994;

(b) to (d) The Fourth Schedule to CSS Rules, 1962 provides that officers
